

The Provo River Trail along 2230 N and University Avenue is being widened and improved. As these improvements proceed, there will be detours around the active construction areas. For safety, the trail detours will be at nearby signaled traffic intersections. Plan on adding a few minutes to your trail activity. The improvements will be performed May through July 2023.