

For an unprecedented third year in a row, Provo City has been recognized by the prestigious Milken Institute as the Best Performing City in the Country! An honor that truly highlights our community's outstanding achievements and ongoing commitment to excellence.

Best Performing City!

No other city has been recognized more than once by Milken for this award and Provo drove the point home by claiming this title not once, not twice but for the years 2021, 2022, 2023! Watch this video to see how Provo has defied all odds, securing this notable title.

The significance of Provo being named the Best Performing City becomes clear when looking at the other heavy hitters who were in the running, but fell short: Miami, Denver, Phoenix, Raleigh, Austin, just to name a few. Our graphic below outlines the criteria to be named the nation's 'Best Performing City.'

- First in Five-year Growth for Jobs
- First in Five-year Growth for Wages
- Access to Economic Opportunities
- High Level of Household Access to Broadband
- Vigorous and Growing High-tech Sector
- Established Hub for Tech Startups
- Rebounding Leisure and Hospitality Sector

What Business Leaders Say

We're honored to be recognized nationally, but we are even more proud of Provo's many influential community leaders who also recognize that Provo is the Best Performing City in the Country. Check out this video to see what they said and why they are high on Provo.
