2024 PUBLIC MEETING SCHEDULE

The Provo City Development Services Department strives to ensure that your project is considered as soon as it is ready for Planning Commission review. Only complete applications may be processed and reviewed by staff. Factors that affect scheduling a project for a public meeting agenda include completeness of information submitted, complexity of the request, conformance of proposal and project plans with City ordinances and standards, applicant's response time to comments, additional review for corrected plans, and noticing requirements.

For questions regarding Planning Applications, please call 801-852-6419.

The Municipal Council Chair will set the agenda for all applications requiring action by the Council.
