

Recreation Center Conduct

The Provo Recreation Center is a public facility intended for the use of residents of Provo City, Provo City Staff, as well as residents of surrounding cities. The Recreation Center is intended to be a welcoming and safe place for individuals to congregate and socialize. Participants of the Provo Recreation Center are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that most people would find reasonable and that does not infringe on the enjoyment of other participants. While an exhaustive list of inappropriate activities is impractical, the following outlines the basic principles of appropriate Recreation Center use.

Participants agree to observe the following when attending the Provo Recreation Center:

- Smoking is not permitted in the Recreation Center at any time.
- Alcohol is not permitted in the Recreation Center at any time.
- Offensive language is not permitted in the Recreation Center.
- The Recreation Center structure, grounds, furnishings and fixtures must be treated with care and respect at all times. This includes no dunking in the basketball courts.
- Obtain entry through proper membership, daily admission fees, or City programs and events. Unauthorized entry will result in loss of facility privileges.
- No commercial activity, including requesting donations, private instruction, collect admission, sell product, or solicit individuals for agencies, personal services, or businesses.
- State and local policies, laws and regulations must be observed at all times.

Participants are expected to:

- Be able to function on their own or with the assistance of an escort, but independently from Provo City Staff or Recreation Center volunteers.
- Maintain personal hygiene that is healthy and inoffensive.
- Use voice, language and behavior that will not offend or disturb other participants or staff.
- Treat others with courtesy and consideration.
- Use computers for personal projects and education. All usage must be appropriate, inoffensive, and may not interfere with the operation of the City's computer system. Participants are NOT to download or install any programs onto the city's computers.
- Get permission for any photography or videography, personal, commercial, or otherwise, from staff prior to their filming.
- Observe all state and local laws, policies, ordinances, and regulations.
- Comply with any direction from Provo Recreation Center staff, and follow any other rules that they deem necessary and appropriate to provide patrons a safe and welcoming environment.
- Comply with Recreation Center employees in accordance with the rules and regulations outlined above as well as any other direction staff deem necessary to maintain the safety and enjoyment of all patrons. Failure to comply with staff requests, directions, or instructions will result in loss of privileges, including removal from the building and criminal trespassing.

Questions regarding the patron code of conduct can be directed to the Recreation Center Operations Supervisor or Recreation Division Director.
